

CANONICAL LACK OF FORM APPLICATION

Documentation to Attach For Lack Of Form Case

Four things have to be PROVEN in a lack of form case:

1. That at least one party to the marriage was baptized in the Roman Catholic Church previous to the former marriage.

The usual means of proof is a CATHOLIC BAPTISMAL CERTIFICATE. If this cannot be found, but the petitioner claims to have been baptized a Catholic, the Tribunal will take testimonies from witnesses to try and prove Catholic Baptism.

2. That the original wedding was not a Catholic wedding.

For this, the CIVIL WEDDING CERTIFICATE is needed; it will show who the original minister was. IF the civil certificate cannot be obtained after serious efforts, the Tribunal will hear witnesses, to try and prove what kind of Ceremony it was.

3. The CIVIL DIVORCE DECREE ought to accompany the petition. However, if it cannot be obtained, the parish minister must at least verify that there has been a civil divorce, and certify this for us in writing.

4. That the marriage was never convalidated later.

For this, the TESTIMONY OF THE TWO WITNESSES on the enclosed page is needed. The witness should be such close relatives of the petitioner and/or previous spouse that they would know positively if a validation of the marriage occurred.

If the marriage in question took place before January 1, 1949, additional materials may be needed, due to peculiarities of the canons at the time. Please consult the Tribunal.

Documents which you submit with the application will be returned when the Tribunal's Sentence is issued.

(This application is to be used only for cases in which an-already-baptized Roman Catholic married outside the Church without dispensation, and never had the marriage convalidated. In all other types of marriage nullity, other tribunal forms are needed instead).

NOTE: This application is to be submitted at least SIX WEEKS previous to any date for a future wedding on the petitioner's part. Submit it, with documentation and fee payment, to:

TRIBUNAL
499 St. Matthew, St.
El Paso, Texas 79907
